

Leadership Education for Adolescent Health (LEAH)
Tele conference series
With State Adolescent Health Coordinators

Healthy Youth Development

July 20, 2006

12:00 noon to 1:30 pm ET

Presenters

Michael Resnick,
University of Minnesota

Shirley Hankins Robinson
University of Alabama at Birmingham and

Sydney McDonald
University of Alabama at Birmingham

Moderator

Kristin Teipel
Konopka Institute, University of Minnesota

Conference Outline

- | | |
|--|-----------------------|
| 1. Welcome, introductions, call format
Kristin Teipel | 12:00 noon – 12:10 pm |
| 2. Healthy Youth Development: An Overview
Michael Resnick <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Healthy Youth Development: Defining Core Constructs• Risk and Protection<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Dual strategy: reduce risk factors, increase protective factors○ Evidence supporting dual strategy• Proximal and distal influences on healthy youth development• Notes from the field: national and international interest in healthy youth development approaches to preventing negative youth health outcomes | 12:10 - 12:30 pm |
| 3. Brief questions/discussion
Kristin Teipel | 12:30 – 12:35 pm |
| 4. Healthy Youth Development Framework: Applications
Shirley Robinson, Sydney McDonald <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Healthy Youth Development: Measuring Core Constructs<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Process and outcome indicators• Applying Healthy Youth Development framework to categorical prevention programs<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Example: Using Youth Development as an approach to reducing risk• Healthy Youth Development Approaches: Cross-Cutting Outcomes | 12:35 – 12:55 pm |

5. Questions/Case Consultations

12:55 – 1:25 pm

Michael Resnick, Shirley Robinson, Sydney McDonald

6. Close

1:25-1:30 pm

Kristin Teipel